Mikey, as known while at Saint Joe's, attended Penn State University and majored in Digital and Print Journalism. He also completed a minor in Business and the Liberal Arts while at PSU. A few of Michael's favorite things about his college experience included the relationships built with others and all the learning experiences of college. Michael enjoyed attending a university that excelled on the field and in the classroom.

What are you currently doing from a career or education standpoint?

Michael was recently named as the new Sports Editor for the Lock Haven Express where he will utilize all the knowledge and skills he learned while completing his degrees at Penn State.

What are some of your favorite things you like to do in your personal time?

In his personal time, Michael loves to read, watch football, and spend time with his friends and family.

How did Saint Joe's impact you? And how are you using the things you learned at Saint Joe's today?

Saint Joe's prepared me for college and beyond. The wisdom I was taught at Saint Joe's is something I will always carry with me. SJCA taught me not to be afraid and strive for my best every day.

What are you passionate about?

I have a passion for learning, I strive to learn new things every day. Aside from learning, I am deeply passionate about sports and writing.

One of your favorite quotes or Bible verses:

Jeremiah 29:11 – "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

Favorite Quote is by Ernest Hemmingway"Man is not made for defeat."
